Your Alaskan Base Camp

Ski The Last Frontier

Known for steep lines and abundant snowfall, Alyeska Resort offers the ultimate ski experience without the crowds or attitude. Recent mountain improvements include an expanded beginner area and quality instruction at the Mountain Learning Center. Avid skiers and riders will enjoy the challenges of the North Face, home of the longest double black diamond run in North America. Averaging 650" of snowfall and ample daylight in the spring, put Alyeska Resort on your dream list.

Featured Winter Activities:

- Helicopter & snowcat skiing with Chugach Powder Guides
- Cross country & snowshoe trails right from the Resort
- Guided snowmobile, dog-sledding & winter flightseeing tours

Explore Alaska's Wilderness

Surrounding the Resort, the Chugach Mountains provide convenient access to the Alaskan wilderness. From short nature hikes to lift-accessed downhill biking, summer adventures abound right out the Hotel's door step. Within close proximity to multiple National Parks, including Denali – home of the highest peak in North America, Alyeska provides a little R&R after full days of exploring.

Featured Summer Activities:

- Guided nature hikes & glacier treks
- Flightseeing & paragliding
- Wildlife & glacier cruises
- World-class fishing

All year-round, great live music and culinary events are a staple. From national acts in the Sitzmark Bar & Grill to summer concert series and festivals, the events calendar is bustling with signature happenings.

Meetings & Weddings

Alyeska Resort is perfectly suited for gatherings of all sizes with 9,000 square feet of dedicated meeting and exhibit space, and an additional 15,000 square feet of special event space. The Sales and Conference Services Team can help turn a meeting planner's vision into reality. The Resort is also a versatile wedding venue offering formal indoor space to casual sites in the great outdoors. The Resort has an on-site wedding coordinator to assist in details, big and small.
